

TRANSIT POLICE

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority

Emergency | 617-222-1212

www.mbta.com/transitpolice

MBTA Transit Police

617-222-1212

www.mbta.com/transitpolice

Do you own a portable GPS locator?
If you want to keep it... conceal it!!

GPS locators are a valuable item.
GPS locator devices are portable.
GPS locators can be easily stolen.

Protect your property.
Conceal your valuable items such as cell phones, laptops, satellite radios, portable CD players, etc.

Working Together to Protect Us All

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority

SAFETY STARTS WITH YOU

Here are some tips to help prevent thefts
when using MBTA parking facilities:

- ✓ Store your valuables in the trunk or hide them under the seat if a trunk is not available. Valuables in plain view are asking to be stolen.
- ✓ Always remember where you vehicle is parked. Know the license plate number.
- ✓ Walk directly to your vehicle.
- ✓ Have your keys ready when approaching your vehicle.
- ✓ Try to walk with others who are parked near you.

Suspicious Behavior:

- A person(s) observed looking into a parked vehicle that does not get into the vehicle.
- A vehicle driving very slowly around the parking facility that doesn't appear to be parking.

If you see suspicious activity take note of what the person or vehicle looks like and/or get a license plate number; then call the MBTA Transit Police at 617-222-1212 or 911.

See Something/Say Something

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority